

Optional Resources for Allies

The following short readings, videos, and courses serve as additional resources for EDI committee members and volunteer conference Allies. It is important to note that these resources may involve discussions of sexual violence, homophobia, transphobia, anti-blackness, ableism, and discrimination at large, which may be triggering for some trainees.

Allyship and intersectionality videos:

1. Beyond Microsoft's “Intersectionality: The impacts of intersecting identities” discussion here (~32 minutes). The video is located in the “Intersectionality” section, between the “Inclusion opportunity” and “Privilege” sections.
2. Alycia Anderson’s TEDx talk “Disabling Ableism: The Modern Pathway to Inclusion” here (~17 minutes)
3. Beyond Microsoft's “Historical View of D&I” here (~3 minutes). The video is located at the bottom of the “Global conversation” section.
4. Futures Without Violence's 3-part “Voices from Our Movement” video series (roughly 25 minutes total):
 - a. Video 1: “Connecting the Dots” can be found here (~7 minutes)
 - b. Video 2: “Racism in the Anti-Violence Movement” can be found here (~9 minutes)
 - c. Video 3: “Transformation is Now” can be found here (~9 minutes)

Allyship free courses and guides:

1. Being an Ally, a course offered by GitLab
2. Guide to Allyship, an open source guide
3. Talking about Conditions That Suggest Diversity Can Mean Excellence from Indiana University Bloomington’s Initiative for the Advancement of Women